Seafair Torchlight Parade – This Weekend! Saturday July 27th 7:30 pm - Westlake Park

Since 1950, tens of thousands of spectators have gathered on a warm July night to watch as parade units march, float and dance in celebration of Seattle. In its 70th year, the parade continues to highlight and celebrate traditions in Greater Seattle's diverse cultural landscape as well as start new traditions, welcoming those new to the Seattle area. The 2019 Alaska Airlines Torchlight Parade will feature entries both old and new and is sure to be a crowd-pleaser on this momentous year.

This event is free and open to the public, with reserved seating available for purchase. For 2019, we are thrilled that Mr. Tod Leiweke, CEO and Team president for Seattle's new NHL hockey team, will be leading our Alaska Airlines Torchlight Parade!

The public is invited to Seattle Center before the parade for FanFest where they can get an up-close and personal view of the floats, marching bands, and the equestrian units as they all go through final preparations for the parade. FanFest is from 12 pm to 6:00 pm.

Tenant Spotlight: Buckets Floral

Darren Williams & Michael Elmore started Buckets in 1989 as a flower cart across from Rainier Square. In 2001 they moved to the Harbor Steps where they stayed until 2014 when they relocated, joining the family at Orcas Business Park. They offer custom flower arrangements for all occasions such as Birthdays, Anniversaries, Parties, Thank You's, Holidays, Just Because and more. They also service several weekly Corporate accounts. The photo above is an example of their work. Feel free to reach out if there is anything they can help with.
