

ORCAS NEWS

Orcas Business Park Newsletter

IN THIS ISSUE:

King County Re-opening

Black Lives Matter

Conscious Eatery

Safe Start King County

King County is now in modified Phase 1

Working together, our community has slowed the spread of COVID-19. Now, King County is working to gradually and carefully reopen the local economy.

On Friday, June 5th the Washington State Department of Health accepted our plan to allow for limited openings of recreational, social and business activities in a modified Phase 1 of the Governor Jay Inslee's Safe Start reopening plan. Click here to find out what activities are allowed under modified Phase 1.

Black Lives Matter Seattle-King County

STATEWIDE SILENT MARCH AND GENERAL STRIKE ON FRIDAY, JUNE 12TH

Black Lives Matter Seattle-King County is calling for a statewide day of action in support of all Black lives in Washington State on Friday, June 12th. The day of action will include a general strike and a silent march to honor and mourn the lives lost to police brutality and institutional racism. Orcas Business Park office will be closed. For those who can't march in Seattle, local groups are encouraged to organize a march in their communities.

Missing lunch from Conscious Eatery?

Beginning Monday June 15th Conscious Eatery will be re-opening for curbside pickup and delivery only. They will not be accepting cash at this time, card only. You can call ahead or order online at <http://consciouseatery.org/> Enjoy your favorite lunch and feel good about supporting a local black owned business and fellow tenant of Orcas Business Park!